VOL. XIII. NO. 285. CHICAGO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1907. PRICE 5 CENTS

PERSEVERANCE A FAILURE.

AT ODDS-ON NEVER HAS A CHANCE IN THE DIXIE STAKES.

Glaucus First but Is Disqualified—Firebrand Wins Again — Fancy Bird Defeats Hooray and Dolly Spanker.

Washington, D. C., November 27.—Out of twelve nominations to the Dixie Stakes only one eligible, Paul J. Rainey's Perseverance, appeared in the overnight entries, and much of the usual interest in the probable result of what was intended as the mid-week feature of the closing week, was lost to to the average race-goer, who looked upon it as another walk-over. But this was not to happen. George Odom withdrew Oraculum from the first race, in which he was carded to start, and added him to the Dixie, with the intention of taking down the $500 second money. Here again the unexpected happened. The seventy-three bookmakers made Perseverance a 1 to 3 favorite, while 2 to 1 could be had against Oraculum in the opening betting, and the price went up to 13 to 5, and that part of the big crowd always taking the price and not the horse, backed Oraculum, while the price on Perseverance went begging for takers at post time. The running of the race proved sensational in result. Notter held Perseverance under hard restraint for a mile, but the horse failed dismally when called on and his performance today would not have permitted his winning the race in any other way than a walkover. McDaniel simply cantered Oraculum throughout, increasing his lead with every stride, and was nearly a sixteenth of a mile in the lead when he passed the judges' stand.

The crowd enacted a merry scene at the finish of the race, and Perseverance finished amid the derisive shouting of the surprised spectators, and none were more surprised than Odom and his friends.

The condensed history of the Dixie Stakes is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1902	Adelaide Prince..	113	Redfern ...	$1,540	3:06⅖
1903	*Colonsay	119	Odom	1,750	3:41⅘
1904	The Southerner...	116	Odom	3,510	3:06⅖
1905	Kiamesha	113	F. O'Neill..	2,225	3:08
1906	Holscher	126	Noone	2,800	3:10⅘
1907	Oraculum	116	McDaniel ..	2,175	3:13

*Walkover.

An all-age highweight selling race opened the program, and Firebrand proved easily best, although Billie Hibbs was favorite and Sanguine second choice, while Firebrand and Right and True were both held at 6 to 1. There was a long delay at the post due to Beardall getting the best of Bergen and running away two miles, and the others were finally dispatched without him. Notter rated Firebrand close up and finished with a rush. Sanguine, away none too well, closed up steadily and was gaining at the end. The favorite set the early pace but tired badly in the stretch. Right and True and Little Woods ran good races, but the others were always outrun.

Norbitt was made the favorite in the second race, closing at even money with the others neglected. Beckman raced Norbitt into a long lead right after the start and only lost out in a weak finish. Malaga finished fast and just got up to win in the last stride. Silver Ball finished with an amazing burst of speed and outstayed Octoic for third place.

Glaucus was disqualified in the fourth race for bumping Hiacko after being given a splendid ride by Notter. Hiacko showed the most early speed and was only beaten a head after being impeded by the winner in the stretch. The clubhouse crowd lost heavily when the well-backed choice was set back by the stewards for fouling. The fifth race was between Aiken and Kempton, of which Aiken was easily best and finished accordingly. Duffield obtained third place in the last stride of a fast finish.

J. L. McGinnis, who was one to lose on Glaucus, backed the winner of the sixth race and more than recouped his losses when Fancy Bird won by three lengths after racing Hooray and Dolly Spanker into defeat. Dolly Spanker was favorite and, but for a mishap on the first turn and being dropped into a number of pockets, might have won. The finish between the Wilson gelding and Hooray was very close. The other two starters were never contenders. Howard Shean won the last race on the card as his rider pleased. The favorite won pulled up. Gramsar showed the way for the first half mile and then faded away.

The holiday card for decision tomorrow again offers seven races, two of which are steeplechases. The Junior Steeplechase and the running of the tenth renewal of the Washington Cup will be the features and the handicap for two-year-olds will add additional zest to the day's races.

SCHREIBER BUYING MORE MARES.

Lexington, Ky., November 27.—Barney Schreiber left tonight for St. Louis, from where he will go directly to Los Angeles for the winter meeting. He spent the afternoon at Elmendorf Farm. During the day he bought from H. T. Oxnard the four-year-old chestnut mare, Amice Abbott, by Goldfinch—Mamie B. He wanted to buy Tin Cup and Miss Camille, which were sold to G. D. Wilson out of the Bennett consignment yesterday, but Mr. Wilson after a talk with Senator J. W. Bailey, who is interested with him, said they would keep the mares and breed them to Stalwart next spring.

RUBRIC'S FAST MILE AT OAKLAND.

Arklirta Scores from Rather Royal—Agnolo and King of Mist Spring Surprises.

Oakland, Cal., November 27.—The presence of the three eastern jockeys, Walter Miller, Eddie Dugan and Guy Burns, has contributed largely towards making Oakland the racing mecca of the country these days. Their exploits, next to the all-absorbing task of picking the winners, monopolize the attention of local turf patrons.

Miller was again conspicuously in the public eye with two firsts, one second, two thirds and one unplaced, out of six mounts, to his credit. Eddie Dugan, whose daily mounts for some undivulged reason, are restricted in number, scored one win on an outsider in the fifth and finished in the ruck on his employer's entry in the opening race. On the former he triumphed over his greatest rival by a short head after a tremendous and long sustained closing struggle. The youngest member of this trio of riders, Guy Burns, failed to land in front with any of his four mounts, but was there or thereabouts on three occasions.

The card contained a feature of secondary importance, the Milpitas Handicap at one mile, and five interesting overnight races. Three outstanding and generously supported favorites in Baboo, Phalanx and Arklirta rewarded their backers and, but for a fraction of odds, Rubric with Miller up would have been the fourth public choice that made good.

The victory of Dr. H. E. Rowell's horse was the most impressive one during the afternoon and occurred in the principal race on the program. Even the two outsiders, Agnolo and King of the Mist, came in for support and, on the whole, the layers suffered even a greater loss than yesterday or the day before.

Thirty-two books drew for positions in the big ring today, the attendance approximated 8,000 and the racing, materially helped by improved starting, was high class. Neither of the two big racing establishments of R. F. Carman and S. C. Hildreth was much in evidence today, they being represented by only one starter apiece during the afternoon.

Jockey T. Rice was fined $25 by the starter for being unruly at the post in the first race.

The horse Yank failed to show up in the paddock within the prescribed time limit in the second race and was accordingly debarred from starting. Wagers made on him were ordered refunded.

S. C. Hildreth has acquired second call on Walter Miller for the entire season.

Charles Webber and Arthur McKnight are recent arrivals from the north. The last named will leave for Kansas City, Mo., tomorrow. R. H. Harris will ship his string of six racers to Arcadia Friday. W. H. Spence will continue racing Durnell's recently arrived New York string.

W. O'B. Macdonough has a dozen fine looking weanlings by the Hamburg stallion Inflexible, out of approved mares at the Menlo Stock Farm.

The crack Salvado three-year-old, F. Neugent, came out of his last record-breaking race with a spread foot, which may incapacitate him for the remainder of the year. His improvement had been rapid and surprising, his racing last spring considered, and his accident is a local misfortune.

THIRTY LEADING OWNERS.

Few changes have taken place in the aggregates won by the horses belonging to the thirty leading owners of 1907, significant evidence that the bulk of the money now run for daily is being won by the horses belonging to the minor owners. The table now makes the following showing:

INTRUSIVE FALLS DEAD.

Lexington, Ky., November 27.—The stallion Intrusive dropped dead in his stall at Idle Hour Farm this morning. E. R. Bradley had paid $1,500 for him at the Fasig-Tipton sale yesterday, but Intrusive was George C. Bennett's loss. He was bought by Mr. Bradley with the understanding that he would make a public season at Idle Hour Farm next spring as the property of Mr. Bennett. Bennett left here tonight for Cincinnati, thence to Memphis, thence to Texas for a few days and then to New Orleans.

FEATURES OF THE MARRONE CASE.

Evidence Tending to Show Over-Hasty Action by the Stewards.

Washington, D. C., November 24.—In the pursuit of my duty as representative of New York's great paper, the Herald, it was my good fortune to be present late last night at one of the most striking examinations of a racer ever participated in. Joseph Marrone, who for more than twenty years has raced on the metropolitan turf, was charged by the stewards of the Washington Jockey Club with either knowing of or being a party to artificially stimulating the well-known former Corrigan gelding, St. Joseph, which for two years past had been raced by M. J. Daly. The gelding was bought at the Empire City meeting by Marrone, who forthwith won two races with him. Since then he has had the usual vicissitudes of a cheap and unreliable selling plater. He had run once before at the current Benning meeting, ridden by Notter, the best jockey at the track, and was backed to beat so useful a racer as Oraculum. He ran fairly well for a half mile, and then died away.

Yesterday with Frank Bergen, son of the late famous jockey, "Marty" Bergen, up, St. Joseph ran in the first race, was at 30 to 1 in the betting, went to the post at 25 to 1, and after showing speed for nearly a half mile he died out of the contention. He had been so unruly in the paddock that the representatives of the Jockey Club suspected the presence of an artificial stimulant, and after the race the gelding was ordered into the hands of Dr. Lagrange, the regular Jockey Club's veterinarian, who is on duty at every track in the eastern circuit.

In presence of Marrone the gelding was submitted to tests usually employed to prove the presence of the "dope," and upon the veterinarian's report, necessarily a hurried one, the stewards ordered Marrone's badge taken up. Naturally the man was greatly perturbed, but he did not lose his head. He offered to pay the stewards all the expenses of a complete, lengthy, and carefully made examination of St. Joseph to be made at once, and thus prove to their satisfaction that the hasty inspection was not a thorough test. He solemnly asserted his innocence, claimed that the racer had shown temper because he was kept in a stall in the rear of the paddock instead of facing the crowd, and declared that the unruly manifestations were only the result of a nervous, high-strung horse knowing he was about to be raced would show, especially after a blanket had been strapped around his body and he was galloped through the stretch in a preliminary.

The stewards would not take advantage of Marrone's sincere offer, however, and under ordinary circumstances the matter might be left to take its course. But Marrone is not an ordinary man. He has a violent temper, which he with difficulty controlled, and he determined to protect his good name in his own way.

Summoning to his aid two of the best veterinaries in Washington, Doctors Robinson and Lockwood, the former dean of the Veterinary College here, which has more than 100 students to whom he lectures frequently, and both men evidently past masters in their profession, none rating higher, Marrone sought out several newspaper men with the object of having them as witnesses to the examination of St. Joseph. Only one was available at that hour (9 o'clock) and your correspondent is that man. The trip to the stables near the track was made in an automobile hired for the occasion by Marrone, and the night was the most cheerless that I ever encountered.

From 9 o'clock till nearly eleven, or fully two hours, the two veterinaries put the racer through all sorts of physical examinations. His heart-beats were timed, his eyes were examined with the flame of a candle, all other lights having been put out for this purpose, and then nearly two hours after we first saw the horse the freshly deposited fecal exhibits were closely examined. Dr. Robinson evinced great interest in this, for a large part of it was the membrane of the lining of the bowels, while the deposits themselves were caked like giant capsules. They were covered with mucous, and the veterinarian declared that this, with other evidence of the state of the bowels, convinced him that St. Joseph had narrowly escaped an attack of pneumonia, probably due to his shipment from New York the week preceding.

It was irrefutable evidence, both veterinarians declared, of the racer's physical unfitness.

They asserted that the intestines, to the extent of at least thirty feet, were filled with these mucous-covered hard balls, and that it was no wonder St. Joseph did not here run up to his best form. The bowels' contents were conveyed away safely to be shown to Dr. Lagrange, the two veterinaries having agreed to see him before they would give to Mr. Marrone the certificate which to ordinary minds would fully account for the horse's erratic behavior. It was a revelation to all.

The whole transaction thus far goes to show upon what a slender reed the good name of any horseman may rest. When horses do not perform consistently, betting men, who by the very fact that they have bet should not attempt to dictate to the officials, demand the punishment of some one—either owner, trainer or jockey. I have no doubt that officials in every part of the country have at some time or other done injustice to some unfortunate, simply because his horse or horses had not run better than his physical ailment would permit. Do you not recall the fact that after the death of Mr. Cassatt's Lurus, a giant tumor was

SOUTHERN RACING BETTER.

WEATHER, TRACK AND FIELDS SHOW IMPROVEMENT AT NEW ORLEANS.

Ace High Defeats Refined, but Luckily—Pete Vinegar Takes the Steeplechase—Melange Surprises.

New Orleans, La., November 27.—By far the best racing of the present meeting took place this afternoon. The fast drying track encouraged owners to enter their charges, making the fields larger and of more even caliber. It remained for the steeplechase to result in the first scandal of the season and the judges' vigilance brought grief to jockey Pollock. He had the mount on Full of Fun, the well-backed favorite. Pollock seemingly did not make a strenuous effort to land him winner. When approaching the first hedge he dropped him to the rear of the others and when Full of Fun attempted to move up into a contending position, he deliberately steered him to the outside, thereby losing much ground. The same tactics were resorted to when going around all turns, with the result that at the finish, Full of Fun was beaten off, Pete Vinegar taking the purse after a short struggle to wear down Peter Becker. After the finish the judges announced Pollock's suspension for an indefinite period.

Favorites fared badly during the day, only two, Al Muller and Fay, both at odds-on, rewarded their backers' confidence.

Melange, in the third, enabled S. Flynn to break into the ranks of winning riders and incidentally furnished the principal surprise of the afternoon by winning at long odds.

The seven furlongs race was contested by a speedy band and furnished a good contest, but resulted in a fluky victory for Ace High ridden by P. Kelly, a promising apprentice. Refined, which finished second, was best and lost solely through the incompetent riding of Hufnagel. Jungle Imp, at a false price, repeated his good performance in his previous start and won by a good margin from Belleview, another long-priced one.

The victory of Fay contributed a purse to H. McCarren, Jr., the first in many months. The filly was best and won all the way. W. H. Fizer's prospective Derby candidate, Al Muller, made a show of his opponents in the opening race. He will show his heels to much better competitors than opposed him today.

Although few layers were in line today, the betting has improved over twenty-five per cent. The bettors are gradually mastering the new system and sending their money into circulation.

Telegrams were received from owners J. Johnston and A. G. Weston, now at Bennings, that they would ship their horses here tomorrow. Weston will bring fifteen head and Johnston six, including two jumpers. T. E. Mannix got in today with fourteen horses from Benning.

Burlew & O'Neill's Chapultepec was given a stiff workout at the Fair Grounds track this morning. He had James Hennessy in the saddle and was weighted at about 100 pounds. He worked five furlongs rather easily in 1:01½, the fractions as follows: Furlong in 11⅗, quarter in 23⅘, three furlongs in 35½, half in 47⅖. The work was an eye-opener to many trainers who looked on and proves the foundation for the reported speed of the new course.

H. J. Harris disposed of Lavatrina today to R. E. Clark for the reported price of $1,000. Quinn Brady died this morning as a result of the fever he contracted some time ago.

Sig Levy arrived yesterday from Chicago and will operate from the ground for several days before joining the ranks of layers.

Word was received from starter Cassidy that his wife is rapidly improving and that he will in all probability be on hand to do the starting for the opening of the Fair Grounds.

SANTA ANITA STAKE DATES.

"The postponement of the opening of the new track at Santa Anita Park will not make any difference as regards the stakes," said an official of the Racing Association at Los Angeles a day or two ago. "The order of their running will remain unchanged. To insure against any confusion as to the running of the stakes, in the event the track should not open on Thanksgiving day, I took the liberty when arranging the dates to have none scheduled for decision in the two weeks following Thanksgiving day. The second stake is advertised for Saturday, December 14. The Inaugural Handicap will therefore be run on the opening day as intended, only the date will be December 7 instead of November 28. The stake books are now being prepared for the printers and will be distributed within a week."

OTOGO SOLD TO BRADY.

Nashville, Tenn., November 27.—Matt Allen, trainer for James B. Brady of New York, arrived here yesterday and today purchased the yearling chestnut colt, Otogo, by Ornus—Irksome, by Iroquois, from the owner and breeder of the colt, J. W. Russwurm. Otogo has been credited with some sensational trials at Cumberland Park and is probably one of the best colts shown at the local track in a number of years. The price paid for the colt is said to be $2,500. Mr. Allen presumably acted for his employer, James B. Brady.

TO FORM A NEW GOVERNING BODY.

Kentucky Breeders Issue a Call with That End in View.

Lexington, Ky., November 27.—Following the publication last Saturday of an editorial in the Thoroughbred Record declaring the time ripe for the formation of a new jockey club to govern the affairs of the turf in the west, and expressing the opinion that through the influence of an organization of representative breeders and business men racing in the states of Illinois, Missouri, Tennessee and Arkansas can be revived and the general character of the sport improved, sixteen representative horsemen today signed a call for a meeting here of all breeders next Monday. The call reads:

"We, the undersigned, recognizing the importance of the formation of a new jockey club to govern racing in the west, request every breeder to meet at the Phoenix Hotel in this city on Monday next, December 2, at twelve o'clock."

The signers are Milton Young, owner of the McGrathiana Stud and member of the Kentucky State Racing Commisison; Major Foxhall A. Daingerfield, manager of James R. Keene's Castleton Stud; Barney Schreiber, owner of the Woodlands Stud in Missouri and the largest stable of horses in training this year; James E. Clay, owner of the Marchmont Stud near Paris, and a member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission; Charles H. Berryman, manager of James B. Haggin's Elmendorf Stud; O. H. Chenault, owner of the Spendthrift Stud; C. W. Moore, owner of the Mere Hill Stud; Charles F. Hill, manager of Clarence H. Mackey's Kingston Stud; Garrett D. Wilson, owner of Horsemen's Headquarters and partner with United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey in the ownership of Iroquois Stud; Breckinridge Viley, owner of Stonewali Stud; John B. Ewing, owner of Willamette Stud; J. M. Shipp of Sunny Slope Stud; R. H. Anderson, Tea's Over Stud; Sidney Bedford, A. L. Ferguson and James Brown, likewise distinguished as breeders.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

P. Gallagher, the steeplechase rider, will race a few horses at New Orleans this winter. The horses are now on their way south.

The South African jockey, W. Clements, rode his first winner in England when he finished first with Orchis in the Park Plate race at Lingfield, England.

Dion K. Kerr is confined to his home in Washington with ear trouble, and his father, Dr. James Kerr, has engaged an ear specialist to treat the inflamed member.

Jockey Yorke, who has been riding on the eastern tracks for W. C. Daly this summer, will ride at New Orleans for V. Britton after the close of the Washington meeting.

F. Bullock, one of the leading English jockeys of the season just closing, will ride in Germany next year for the Graditz Stud. Second call on his services has been secured by Baron E. d'Oppenheim.

For the consideration of $1,500 and a contingent interest in his winnings, Barney Schreiber has sold the three-year-old bay gelding, Mark Gumbert, by Bannockburn—Wetumka, to J. E. Widener. The horse is to be schooled for jumping.

Jockey Hufnagel, who had the leg up on Refined in the fifth race at City Park Monday, is not a stable boy as many New Orleans race-goers supposed. Hufnagel rode ten winners during the meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club at Norfolk last September.

James W. Colt has invented a saddle tackle which prevents the saddle from slipping on horses of large girth or tapering barrel. Fin MacCool is a horse of this description and will likely wear the Colt contrivance the next time the horse starts in a steeplechase.

found in his body? Lurus was noted at times for his propensity to swerve and run anyway but straight on. There have been hundreds of instances of horses of less fame failing to run true, and no one could account for it. To satisfy public clamor, the stewards arbitrarily order the entries of this, that, or the other man refused because of the in-an-out running of their horses.

As a matter of fact, some people do not know what in-an-out running really is. During the recent Jamaica meeting Faust ran three races almost exactly true to form when the difference in weight and pace-making is considered. On October 21 he was about two lengths behind Gretna Green at a difference of seven pounds. He was just outside the money. October 23, after Gretna Green had carried on a good deal of the running, he was beaten a head by Faust at a difference of eleven pounds. If Gretna Green had been ridden a waiting race he would have won. October 26, Gretna Green, 109 pounds, finished a length in front of Faust, 103 pounds, but Master Robert won after a phenomenal race.

Now, here were three races run as true as horseflesh can be made to do, and yet some of the turf writers assailed Faust as a rank in-an-outer. It is the same class of critics that is clamoring for the appointment of a board of professional stewards to replace well-balanced men who have faith in the honesty of the average man, who, out of the experience of long lives as owners know the ills of horseflesh and are always willing to give the benefit of the doubt. As a matter of fact, there are the gentlemen constantly acting as stewards who are professionals in my belief, viz., W. S. Vosburgh and H. J. Morris. Both these are well-balanced men for the position, yet the howl goes up for professional stewards. The great deterrent to the establishment of a Board of Stewards is, track owners say, the ever-present fear that professionals are over-zealous and under the proddings of the turf writers would be prone to do great injustice to an owner, just as may be done in the case of Marrone and other instances. Until there may appear on the scene men of sufficient experience, combined with strength of character sufficient to resist public clamor when misdirected, there will be no full board of professional stewards appointed to take up the onerous duties of trying to prevent or punish fraud which exists only in the fevered minds of unstrung race-goers. MANY WITHDRAWALS AT LEXINGTON.

Dismayed Breeders Call Back Their Horses and the Sale Ends.

Lexington, Ky., November 26.—There was some improvement in the prices obtained for broodmares and weanlings at the Fasig-Tipton sale today, but not sufficient to encourage all of the consignors to offer their stock. In addition to the lots from the Millstream Stud, the consignments from Captain W. Harry Brown's Senorita Stud, J. P. Chinn's Leonatus Stud and Karl Jungbluth's Waldeck Stud have been withdrawn and the few catalogued by W. W. Darden, Thorndale Stock Farm and John H. Morris of Woodburn Farm, were not offered. Only a few of the poorest of the big consignment of R. H. McCarter Potter's Pequest Stud were sold, the others being held out.

There is a possibility that the consignment of J. B. Haggin, Elmendorf Stud, will be withdrawn. Manager Charles H. Berryman is in communication with Mr. Haggin on the subject tonight. The sale will be concluded tomorrow.

Today seventy-one head were disposed of for an aggregate of $14,775, an average of $208. Of this number forty-five head were the property of George C. Bennett, of Memphis, Tenn., and they brought $11,205, an average of $249.25. The remaining twenty-five averaged only $137. The highest price was $2,600 for the splendid mare, Dishabille, William Lakeland getting her. She will never race again because of a bowed tendon, but she is considered a genuine bargain at that price for breeding purposes.

Milton Young got her dam, Night Gown, for $1,550, the next highest price of the day. The only stallions sold were Abe Frank and Intrusive. The latter was bought by E. R. Bradley and will go into the stud at Idle Hour Stock Farm. T. F. Kelly got Abe Frank and will probably send him to Texas. "I would not have sold those horses today," said Mr. Bennett, "except for the fact that I promised my wife that I would go out of the breeding business entirely if I had a losing year with my horses this year. I had a losing year and I felt that I was compelled to abide by that promise. The sale, of course, was a big disappointment to me, but they are gone now and I am through as a breeder as soon as I get rid of about twenty broken down old racers and worthless two-year-olds and my farm will be clear of horses entirely. King's Counsel was not sold today, but he will go back into the ring tomorrow. I will not take him back home. I have nineteen horses at New Orleans, some of them yearlings, and I expect to get rid of them during the winter. I will still continue in the racing game, but only as a bookmaker."

The Bennett sale would have been better could Barney Schreiber have reached the city in time. He sent a man to Mr. Bennett's place about ten days ago and got reports on all the mares that were sold today. He picked out about a dozen that he wanted. He missed the train at Louisville this morning and then paid a man forty dollars to bring him here from the Falls City in an automobile. He did not arrive until after three o'clock and the sale was over. Mr. Schreiber, however, secured a list of the names of the people who bought the mares he wanted and will try to buy some of them privately tonight and tomorrow.

Lexington, Ky., November 27.—With the disposal this morning of seventy-one head for a total of $6,000, an average of $84.50, the Fasig-Tipton Company's eighth annual Kentucky sale of thoroughbred stallions, mares and weanlings was brought to a close. The sale was originally scheduled for five days and 597 head were catalogued, but there were so many withdrawals that it was no task to bring the sale to close in three days. All told, 274 head were sold for $31,280, an average of $114.16. This is the lowest general average in years, but barring a few exceptional instances among the mares, and soberly considering the individuality, quality and age of the greater number of those offered, the values were not far out of line, though they were unquestionably not satisfactory to the consignors. With the yearlings, however, the sale of which is to be concluded tonight, it is somewhat different. There were among the 111 sold Monday and Tuesday nights a score or more that in the estimation of good judges, would have brought under normal conditions, an average of at least $750, yet the general average was $122.80.

At this morning's sale the highest price was $550 for Frantic, by Hindoo—Francesca, consigned by Perry Belmont, who has closed out his Horse Haven Stud. She went to James E. Clay, of Paris, Ky. Only two others brought as much as $200 and Barney Schreiber got both of them. He gave $250 for Toots Mook and $200 for Lady Charlot, both being in the consignment of Engman & Wilkerson.

The only stallions sold today were Lamplighter and Gallantry from Milton Young's McGrathiana Stud. Lamplighter was bought for $100 by W. R. Schrader, who has a farm near Barney Schreiber's Woodlands Stud in St. Louis County, Mo., where the old horse will go. Gallantry was knocked down to a farmer named Calleghan for $50.

Winner—B. f, by St. Leonards II.—Virginia Reel (trained by G. H. Keene).

Went to post at 1:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Baboo, luckily and forwardly placed, drew out midway of the stretch and won going away. Import broke slowly and steadily improved his position into a fast going second. Wap, from a flying start, made the running for five furlongs and quit badly in the closing drive. Buto, away poorly, closed a big gap and is promising. Amada was prominent for five furlongs and held on well at the end. Saint Modan, a slow beginner, had a rough trip. Billy Myer quit badly. Cocytus was nearly left and the same applies to Alcibiades. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—71934 Warden Yell, 112.

Winner—B. h, by Sam Lucas—Physalis (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 2:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily; third driving. Phalanx indulged Tawasentha with the lead for a half, then drew out decisively and won as his rider pleased. Tawasentha, which had ran away two miles the morning before, failed to maintain her usual superior speed, but held on well. Anna May, away slowly, closed up rapidly into a fast going third. San Alvardo ran prominently for half the journey, then quit badly. Prestige got away poorly and was shuffled back, but made up ground moderately well. Trinta, nearly left, closed a big gap. Mrs. Frankie Newburg showed early speed. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—71852 Duke of Orleans, 99; 71875 Bantam, 104; 71887 Yank, 99.

Overweights—Anna May, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. g, by Ingoldsby—Agno (trained by C. Snyder).

Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Agnolo, from a lucky start, was always forward in the running and, in a game finish, got up to win in the last stride. Progress, from a striding start, established a long lead early and led to the final strides, but finished tiring badly. Canique, seriously bumped at the start, closed up steadily, but being forced to the extreme outside, just failed to get up. Captain Burnett was a prominent and game contender throughout and is extra good. Fisher Boy, away poorly, closed a big gap, but ran out on the stretch turn. Martinmas, from a flatfooted start, was knocked to the rear early and pocketed to the last quarter, then finished with a belated rush. Elmdale finished close up. Celeres was short. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Scratched—71938 Jolly Witch, 106; 71890 Stella A., 102; 71954 St. Or, 105.

Overweights—Canique, 1 pound; Celeres, 1.

Winner—Ch. h, by Mirthful—Herbric (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Rubric, hard held, indulged the pacemaker for six furlongs, then drew out and won off decisively. St. Elmwood set the pace and gave way suddenly on the last turn, but came again and was making up ground right at the end in a cracking effort. Nagazam, crowded out at the start, was rushed up on the inside into forward pursuit and loomed up menacingly midway of the stretch, but tired at the end. Fred Bent, outpaced seemingly for the first half, loomed up well on the last turn, but failed to stay and is still short. May L. N. was prominent to the half and dropped out in the last three furlongs.

Overweights—Rubric, 1 pound.

Time, 24⅕, 48⅘, 1:14⅘, 1:40⅕, 2:06⅕.

Winner—B. g, by St. Serf—Mist (trained by C. C. McCafferty).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. King of Mist, after close pursuit of the pacemaker for five furlongs, drew out at the half, was then momentarily headed on the last turn by Corrigan, but came on again and outstayed the latter. Corrigan, reserved in forward contention to the far turn, moved up into a brief lead, but tired in the final strides of a terrific closing drive. Benvolio was unexpectedly prominent throughout and a game third. Little Joker is a stayer and closed up steadily into a fast gaining fourth. Mendon, from a flatfooted start, was shuffled to the rear and closed an immense gap in the last half, but could never get up. Bonar made up ground steadily in the last mile and ran a remarkable race for him. Rotrou unexpectedly failed to stay. Lone Wolf was never dangerous. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—Ch. c, by Arkle—Loyalirta (trained by O. F. Johnson).

Went to post at 3:56. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Arklirta, somewhat sore, broke fast, but was reserved right behind the pacemakers and finally got up on the inside in the last stride of a terrific stretch drive. Rather Royal outbroke and outpaced the others decisively for six furlongs, gave way to the winner in the last fifty yards and then came again and was wearing him down at the end. Ed Ball, away poorly, got into quick forward contention, but could never quite get up in a grand race. Roalta ran well up all the way, but was not quite good enough. Elba was badly outclassed.

Winner—B. g, by Hamburg—Lizzie Montrose (trained by A. Simons).

Went to post at 1:58. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Firebrand was easily best, ran close up from the start and, when called on in the stretch, came away with a rush. Sanguine began slowly, but closed a gap steadily and ran a good race. Billie Hibbs showed the most early speed, but was tiring badly in the last furlong as if short. Right and True ran fairly well and had no mishaps. Little Woods made up ground and finished fast. While on the way to the post Beardall ran away two miles and the others were sent away without him. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Winner—Ch. f, by Ethelbert—Makallah (trained by F. C. Frisbie).

Went to post at 2:27. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Malaga ran close up from the start and, coming fast through the stretch, got up to win in the last two strides. Norbitt ran into what appeared a winning lead and set the pace to the last sixteenth, then tired and lost out through a weakly ridden finish. Silver Ball closed a big gap and, finishing with a surprising rush, outstayed Octoic for third place. The latter ran well, but tired in the final drive. New Garter closed a big gap and tired. Mary Holland got off badly. Kingsessing quit.

Overweights—Norbitt, 4 pounds; Ruddigore, 1; Moss, 5.

*Disqualified for foul. Time, 13, 25, 37⅗, 51, 1:18⅗.

Winner—B. c, by Fresno—My Fate (trained by H. Fallahey).

Went to post at 3:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Glaucus was reserved in the early running and, while moving up fast after turning into the stretch, bumped Hiacko, then came on and won in a game finish, but was disqualified for fouling. Hiacko showed the most early speed and held on resolutely in the final drive. Braggadocio closed a big gap, but was tiring at the finish. Miss Catesby was unlucky and in close quarters to the stretch, then came on with a rush. Beggarman made up much ground. Wonder Worker and Tea Leaf showed early speed, but failed to stay. Goshen Chief was crowded back on the first turn and had little chance.

Scratched—(71979)Orfano, 107; 71963 De Burgo, 115.

Went to post at 3:38. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Aiken was easily best and, after forcing or setting the pace throughout, came away with a rush in the stretch. Kempton was always prominent in the running and easily second best. Duffield finished resolutely and got up for third place in the last strides. Wilton Lackaye showed speed, but quit badly. Grace Cameron went well in the stretch. Niantic was pulled up.

Went to post at 4:02. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Fancy Bird was prominent from the start and, after racing Hooray into defeat, came on fast and won going away. Hooray set the early pace, but was tiring at the end and would have lost second place in a few strides. Dolly Spanker lost several lengths on the first turn and was ridden into several pockets before the stretch was reached and his race should be thrown out. Reidmoore ran a bad race and can do better. Went to post at 4:24. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Howard Shean was easily best and, after following Gramsar closely to the stretch, came away with a rush and won pulled up. High Jumper, outrun to the last furlong, finished fast and gamely. Lady Avis ran well and had no mishaps. Gramsar and Village King both quit very badly. Princess Nettie tired.

Overweights—Princess Nettie, 4 pounds.

Time, 24⅕, 49⅘, 1:02⅗, 1:09⅗.

Winner—B. c, by Sorcerer—Discard (trained by W. H. Fizer).

Went to post at 2:04. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Al Muller outclassed the others, broke fast and, showing a high order of speed, won all the way unextended. Financier put up a good performance, was always in nearest pursuit and finished gamely. Divorcee ran well, had no mishaps and was best of the others. Brown Thistle was taken wide most of the way and ran fairly well. Major Mack will show improvement. Peoria, from a poor start, began slowly and closed considerable ground, but favors a longer distance.

Scratched—(71964)Florence N., 109.

Time, 3:03.

Winner—B. g, by Victory—Marmet (trained by W. J. Donohue).

Went to post at 2:34. Off at once to a good start. Won driving; second and third the same. Pete Vinegar, skillfully ridden, was restrained for the first round of the course and moved up gamely when called on, but had to be hard ridden near the end to outstay Peter Becker. The latter showed good form, fenced well and appeared a certain winner until nearing the last two hedges, where he tired slightly as if short. Magic was in forward contention for the first half dozen jumps, but tired near the end and would have been much closer up but for blundering at the last hedge. Uncle James appeared to sulk all the way. Full of Fun ran a bad race and can do much better. Ralph Reese was in a good position when he fell at the third jump. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Time, 24⅗, 49⅗, 1:03.

Winner—B. f, by What-er-lou—Tea Gown (trained by J. W. Flynn).

Went to post at 3:06. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Melange gained steadily throughout, wore C. H. Shilling down in the final furlong and won drawing clear after a slight shaking up. C. H. Shilling, away fast, showed superior early speed and tired after going a half, but held on resolutely. My Love was a sharp factor in the early stages and would have been much closer up but for being cut off in the stretch by C. H. Shilling. Fresh had no mishaps and ran a poor race. Sir Cyril, from a slow beginning, closed a gap. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Overweights—My Love, 5 pounds; Sir Cyril, 2½.

Winner—Ch. c, by Troubadour—Run of Luck (trained by A. Zimmer).

Went to post at 3:29. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Ace High broke fast and set a steady pace to the stretch turn, where he was challenged by Refined, which soon appeared a certain winner, but Ace High came again under hard urging and got up in the final stride. Refined ran a good race, but was given a weak ride, which cost her the race. Lens was given a hard ride through the last quarter and was not good enough. Miss Strome saved ground when coming into the stretch, was gaining at the end and will improve. Alpenmarchen tired badly after going a half. Marsh Redon quit in the last quarter. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Overweights—Miss Strome, 1½ pounds.

Winner—B. f, by Blue Devil—Fairie Queen (trained by H. McCarren, Jr.).

Went to post at 3:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Fay ran into a long lead soon after the start and, leading all the way by a wide margin, won with plenty in reserve. McAllister ran forwardly throughout and held on well in the final drive. Dapple Gold began slowly and was forced to go wide most of the way, but finished gamely and would have been second in a few more strides. Steel Trap closed a good gap in the last quarter. Lacache ran a bad race and can do much better. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—Br. h, by Pirate of Penzance—Marmora (trained by J. B. Brannon).

Went to post at 4:24. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same. Jungle Imp was reserved in the early stages, but moved up fast after going a half and, finishing gamely, wore down Belleview and won drawing out. Belleview wore Beau Brummel down in the first half, but tired in the drive through the stretch. Charlatan had to go wide most of the way and only ran fairly well. Chief Hayes loomed up dangerously on the stretch turn, but quit when hard pressed. Anna Day and Beau Brummel were both forward contenders in the early stages, but tired as if short. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Scratched—71947 Dainty Belle, 91.

Overweights—Jungle Imp, 1½ pounds; Belleview, 4.
